NEW YORK — The Los Angeles based art duo FriendsWithYou is taking up residency at the Standard Hotel in the Meatpacking District of Manhattan with their sculpture “Light Cave.”

In partnership with the Art Production Fund and The Standard, FriendsWithYou’s Samuel Borkson and Arturo Sandoval III have created a stand-alone sculpture at the entrance to the hotel. “Light Cave” is illuminated with LED lights, while air is being pumped through the sculpture to keep the nylon suspended. It is the duo’s largest project to date.

“Light Cave” will be on display at The Standard through October 1.
