"I don't have cats, but if I did, I'd love to see them hanging out in a kitten-sized Jetson house."

Kristin Sloan

"Sometimes it's the ridiculous things that are the most fun to get. Take these water-resistant iPod speakers: Everyone's got an iPod, everyone's got a shower. They're perfect to cover up how bad you must sound while spittin' out Charles Hamilton."

Jacob Cohen, director of operations at design agency Syrup

More brilliant than cheap: Drew Levinson of Toms River, NJ, suggests an EP of "Get Metsmerized," recorded by the 1986 world champions.

Do something in your loved one's honor. e.g., "I took a nap today in your honor," "I ate this delicious bowl of Cap'n Crunch in your honor."
